

C. JOSEPH CARTER, PHD

C. Joseph Carter is a Senior Consulting Associate of EKA. His work for EKA includes:

- Analysis of Alternative Strategies for a Comprehensive University in Shreveport-Bossier, LA
- Strategic Master Plan, College of Coastal Georgia
- Academic Program Plan, LSU in Shreveport
- Strategic Plan, New Jersey City University
- Strategic Merger Analysis, LSU Health Sciences Center in Shreveport and LSU in Shreveport
- Space Capacity Analysis, The University of New Mexico
- Strategic Capital Program, Board of Higher Education, Commonwealth of Massachusetts (24 institutions).

In a career spanning more than 40 years, Dr. Carter has held senior positions in business, academic, and student personnel administration at higher education institutions of diverse sizes and missions. He also has served on the staff of the governing board for a major state university system. From 1977 until his retirement on December 31, 2000, he served as Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs at Western Carolina University, a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina.

Through leadership roles in the National and Southern Associations of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO and SACUBO,) Dr. Carter has contributed significantly to advancing good practice in higher education financial management. He is a past chairman of the Board of Directors of NACUBO and a past President of SACUBO. In 2000, NACUBO conferred on Dr. Carter its highest honor—the Distinguished Business Officer Award. SACUBO presented its corresponding Distinguished Service Award to Dr. Carter in 1999.

Dr. Carter serves numerous colleges and universities as a consultant on issues related to organization and administration, business services, space and facilities planning, and financial feasibility. Areas of concentration include comprehensive assessment of space and facility needs, evaluations of institutional efficiency and effectiveness, institutional strategic planning, and capital project financing.

Dr. Carter’s participation as a principal consultant in EKA projects brings to them the broad perspective of a campus business officer with specific experience as a consultant in strategic, business, and comprehensive capital planning and finance.

Education

AB, English
Wofford College

MA, Higher Education
Florida State University

PhD, College and University
Administration
Florida State University